The editors and publisher of the Journal of Himalayan Ecology and Sustainable Development thank all reviewers for their valuable time and support throughout 2023. Their rigorous peer review is much appreciated by all of us that have benefitted from their feedback, comments, suggestions and insights that helped them improve their papers. The journal would not survive without the generous time and insightful comments of the reviewers, whose efforts often go unrecognized. Although final decisions are always editorial, they are greatly facilitated by the impression and recommendation that reviewers bring to our deliberations. Together with the authors they ensure that readers of the journal receive sound and reliable information supporting the growth and advancement of Journal of Himalayan Ecology and Sustainable Development. The technical expertise rendered by Mr. Hashim Jalil Chishti is highly acknowledged.
